A black and white photograph of a quarry. In the foreground, a large, rectangular marble slab with a light-colored, veined pattern is positioned vertically. Behind it, a rocky cliff face with horizontal layers is visible. At the base of the cliff, a statue of a person in classical attire stands. In the lower right, there are several large, rectangular blocks of stone, some with markings like 'C80/85' and 'C80'. The overall scene is industrial and naturalistic.
